

Visit to the John Denham Visitor's Center

Facilitator: Pacuare Reserve staff

The first day that you arrive to Pacuare Reserve we will have an introduction of the work we do, history, mission and our goals in the John Denham visitors center.

Duration

30 minutes

Time

Determined on site

Capacity

15 pax

Through visual information you will learn about the conservation and education work in the reserve and will make you excited for the experience you will have during your stay with us.

Cost

Included in your rate.

Packing list

No special equipment required.

